

Entanglement in thermal equilibrium states

O. Osenda and G.A. Raggio

FaMAF-UNC, Córdoba, Argentina

Abstract

We revisit the problem of entanglement of thermal equilibrium states of composite systems. We introduce characteristic, viz. critical, temperatures and bounds for themmarking transitions from entanglement to separability or vice versa. We present examples for the various possible thermal entanglement scenarios in bipartite qubit/qubit and qubit/qutrit systems.

PACS numbers: 03.65.Ud,03.67.-a